

Trafalgar invites you to discover the magic of Europe during Autumn, Winter and Spring

2013/14 Europe and Britain AWS programme offers incredible savings and exclusive experiences

23 April, 2013 – Award-winning guided holiday company Trafalgar (www.trafalgar.com), is giving you the chance to see even more of Europe from the inside with the launch of its new 2013/14 Autumn, Winter & Spring (AWS) programme, showcasing 31 itineraries across 22 countries. With demand for Europe ever-increasing, Trafalgar has created three completely new guided holidays, providing the opportunity to discover the English countryside in winter, Germany's spectacular Christmas markets and the snow-capped Swiss Alps. Exceptional value is offered across the portfolio, with Early Payment Discounts (EPD) and an enticing air deal with Singapore Airlines in place.

Trafalgar is delighted to be able to introduce a successful EPD structure into this year's AWS programme, in addition to offering savings of up to 23% on average summer prices, making all of this available from only $119 per day. This is a great chance for travellers to make the most of fewer crowds and really reap the benefits of more immersive time to enjoy a range of unique insider experiences in their chosen destinations.

Trafalgar is also seeing almost unprecedented demand for the region in general and on the back of the success of AWS last year, has significantly increased the number of departures across the board, but there is no doubt that Britain is booming and back in vogue.

On the new 6-day English Countryside guided holiday, priced from $1399, uncover some festive fun in England and experience one of Trafalgar's Unique Insights by trying your hand at making mince pies and puddings at Tideswell School of Food in the picturesque Peak District, amongst many other highlights. Across the continent, why not enjoy some authentic yuletide tradition and explore the oldest Christmas markets in the world with visits to Rothenburg, Wartburg Castle, Leipzig and Dresden on the new 8-day German Christmas Markets, priced from $1599.

Or if wondrous winter mountains are more to your liking, then the new 8-day Swiss Delight is the optimum choice. Featuring an exclusive Be My Guest dining experience at a traditional 'stubete', where guests will enjoy a tasty meal and hear tales of Swiss folklore, a Unique Insight aboard a cable car ride to the summit of Mt. Pilatus and a Local Specialty trip to the Alprose chocolate museum where you'll learn how to make Swiss chocolate, this guided holiday is priced from $1825.

When you book a Singapore Airlines airfare priced from $1999 in conjunction with a Trafalgar guided holiday to Europe, your travel companion can fly from only $899, for bookings made before 31 July, 2013. This deal is also combinable with Trafalgar's Early Payment Discount of 7.5%, valid for bookings until 10 July, 2013.

Trafalgar's AWS guided holidays are ideal for experienced travellers who may be looking for a different and unique way to see these much-loved destinations and also make for fantastic family getaways with custom-designed Family Experiences available on select itineraries. Each guided holiday in the 2013/14 Autumn, Winter & Spring programme features First Class accommodation and transport, many meals, Trafalgar's signature Insider Experiences including Highlight Dinners and the services of an experienced Travel Director.
