Your Travel Director

Your Travel Director goes the extra mile to ensure you and your fellow traveling companions are happy and taken care of.

Meet Kassie

One of our many exceptional Travel Directors

“As a travel all-rounder, I ensure that my guests experience the best of their destinations. From introducing them to new cuisines to deepening their cultural understanding, I love to enrich their journeys. I particularly enjoy taking my guests on outdoor adventures, like exploring the Amalfi coast in Italy or hiking Montserrat in Spain.

Trafalgar delivers the magic...differently. All the planning is done for you, we have one of the most comfortable coach fleets in the industry, the best priority access to museums and attractions, and the best Local Specialists who bring places to life and reveal the special things that you couldn't discover yourself.

The beauty lies in the details. I had one guest who knew that her family came from Croatia's Island of Hvar. On the trip she asked the Local Specialist if she knew her surname. The Specialist knew exactly where her family was from and connected her with a great aunt. She was even able to see the old family home!

A fantastic day is when the group comes back from an experience and guests are literally in awe. Whether it's the first time they set their eyes upon the Eiffel Tower, take in the striking Sagrada Familia in Barcelona, or view the ancient city walls of Dubrovnik, I am humbled to be a part of the vacations that people dream about, experience, and then remember forever.”

Meet Ange

Travel Experiences Manager for New Zealand

“ With Trafalgar, it's all about people. Getting fully immersed with the locals gives you so much more from your trip. For instance, on our signature Be My Guest experiences you'll meet real locals, like the Bamford family on our Contrasts of New Zealand tour (p.41). They've been on their Hurunui Hills Farm since 1884, with six generations focused on producing premium Merino sheep – Scotty and his parents love introducing our guests to their little piece of paradise.

Close to my heart personally are our MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experiences. (p.18-19). We make real tangible improvements for locals and businesses by visiting these experiences. For instance, I love the biodiversity talk from the founder of Kaikōura Wildlife Center Trust, Sabrina, whose goal is to implement a world-class wildlife hospital in the region. Wildlife rescue and rehabilitation is a critical conservation tool to ensure at-risk native species have a chance at recovery and return to the wild.

We give our guests unique experiences to make their travel dreams come true. Some of my favorites are the journey from Queenstown to UNESCO-listed Milford Sound and the nature cruise with lunch (p.41). The views along the way are spectacular, and it's a must to stop for photos at the many scenic viewpoints and areas where Lord of the Rings was filmed. Plus, on very lucky days there are dolphins joining in to be part of the show."

Some of Ange's top experiences

Throughout our tours, local encounters are threaded through each day. Here are just a few that are waiting for you in New Zealand.

A Personal Tour of the Stars Tekapo, New Zealand

The Crater Experience in Tekapo is a magical night of stargazing, with passionate guides sharing their expert insights on southern constellations. You'll view stars and planets through telescopes and with the naked eye, creating a truly unforgettable experience. Experience on Highlights of Australia and New Zealand.

The food is delicious, the gardens are beautiful and the trip across Lake Wakatipu on the TSS Earnslaw is surely one of the most scenic transfers anywhere in the world. Walter Peak High Country Farm will blow you away with its alpine setting and authentic dining. Experience on Australia and New Zealand Panorama.

A low-angle, close-up photograph of a woman, Matricia, playing a large, circular drum. She is wearing a traditional Indigenous garment with many long, light-colored fringes. Our five-year sustainability strategy

A blueprint to change

Alongside our The Travel Corporation (TTC) sister brands, we're proud of more than a decade of championing travel to make a positive difference on the destinations and people we visit, and the wildlife we encounter along the way.

Shannon removing invasive species

Meet Shannon

Chief Sustainability Officer

Among many things that make up her day-to-day, Shannon, spearheads our five-year sustainability strategy, How We Tread Right (HWTR). It's our compass, guiding how we run our business and how you travel. Based on 11 goals tied to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, it tackles climate change, sustainable food, waste reduction, travel experiences, wildlife, diversity, and inclusion.

“Something which has really stood out to me throughout the years is the incredible energy and commitment that all of our team members have. Whether it is searching for a new MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experience or doing their part in ensuring we achieve our sustainability targets – everyone here is on the same mission”.

Tell us about Trafalgar's sustainability journey so far?

We have been committed to MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® for well over a decade. We do this in two key ways, as a business we pledge to be conscious at all levels of our organization – from the offices we work in, to the trips we deliver, thanks to our five-year How We Tread Right sustainability strategy. Alongside this, our not-for-profit TreadRight Foundation invests in nature-based solutions to tackle climate change.

What is the role of the TreadRight Foundation, and what projects do they support?

TreadRight was founded in 2008 and has supported some 60-plus sustainable tourism projects worldwide that align with our three pillars of Planet, People and Wildlife. And, to support TTC's Climate Action Plan and journey to net-zero, in 2022 we shifted TreadRight's focus to prioritize support for nature-based solutions that protect biodiversity and restore the planet.

What ways does Trafalgar demonstrate its commitment to sustainable travel to guests?

When you travel with us, know that our four-point Climate Action Plan is leading us towards net-zero emissions by 2050. As the only tour company with an internal carbon fund, working towards low carbon goals, you'll be pleased to know that we're committed to shrinking our carbon footprint and helping nature fight the climate crisis. Additionally, every tour includes a MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experience, where you directly support United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

What's Trafalgar's approach to diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI)?

We don't travel to see the same old things – we explore to meet different people, hear fresh ideas, and see new places. For us, DEI is more than sustainability; it's integral to our business operations. From championing diversity in our teams to partnering with underrepresented communities, DEI is woven into the fabric of everything we do.
