Meet Todd

One of our many exceptional Travel Directors across the USA and Canada.

“ I do everything I can to make sure my guests enjoy a hassle-free vacation. Daily schedules are planned to get the most out of each destination, and I’m quick with a suggestion of regional food and drinks that our guests might not know about. That way, when it’s time for your travels, everything is smooth and easy.

I’ve even been honored to help with a Grand Canyon marriage proposal and several Las Vegas weddings! I’ve helped coordinate a reunion with a local family, locate a specific shopping request or surprise a partner on a birthday to bring some extra fun to the journey. It’s an honor to not only create but to personalize each of our guest’s experiences and then hear how much they’ve loved their tour.

We also deliver many deep, local experiences you just won’t get with other companies. Learning the history and stories of the people we visit gives us a better understanding of who they are. It’s our Be My Guest, MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experiences and expert knowledge from our Local Specialists that really give us a richer appreciation of the people and places we visit – it’s a real joy to share this with you. ”

Small Group Tours

A smaller way to see more of the world

What are Trafalgar Small Groups?

Small Group Tours with Trafalgar are designed to bring you closer to the heart of every destination.

With an average group size of 16 guests, you'll enjoy a more personal style of travel, with easier access to your Travel Director and more room to take in each experience.

Smaller group sizes open the door to places larger groups often miss, from tucked-away neighborhoods and stylish local restaurants to family run stays and one-of-a-kind cultural experiences. From Borneo to Bilbao and Kenya to Costa Rica, our Small Group itineraries unlock incredible experiences all over the world.

This is still Trafalgar from start to finish. Your Travel Director, Driver and Local Specialists handle the logistics, routes, timings and local know-how behind the scenes, so you can stay present, travel effortlessly and experience each destination more deeply.

Wonders of Patagonia

Gain access to experiences that are only possible with a smaller group, inviting you into the true rhythm of life at the edge of the world. In Ushuaia, that means stepping beyond the expected and into the home of Claudia, where every antique tells a story and every detail reflects generations of local heritage. Over dinner, Franco offers a perspective only a lifelong Fuegian can share, revealing the soul of this remote region through personal stories and deep-rooted connection. It's an experience defined not by sightseeing, but by genuine access, meaningful conversation and the rare feeling of being welcomed as part of the community. Experience on Wonders of Patagonia (p.86).

Costa Rica Nature Adventure

Take a small group journey through Costa Rica that feels more fluid, flexible and connected to the places you'll explore. Smaller vehicles navigate winding roads with ease, opening up access to communities and spontaneous stops that are a challenge for larger groups. Experiences become more immersive too, from cruising Tortuguero's canals together in a single boat to hands-on moments like crafting local coconut desserts. It's a more natural way to travel, where every detail feels closer, easier and genuinely shared. Experience on Costa Rica Nature Adventure (p.74).

WE MAKE TRAVEL MATTER®

over a decade of positive impact

We know you have a lot of choices when it comes to your travels. When you choose Trafalgar, you're not only choosing a trusted travel provider that takes care of every detail, you're choosing a company that makes a tangible, positive and lasting impact.

Meet the Diné (Navajo) locals near Monument Valley on this MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experience. Hear their stories and see their culture, knowing your visit directly supports United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 10: Reduced Inequalities. Experience on Best of the Canyonlands (p.20).

A blueprint to change

Alongside our sister brands at the Travel Corporation (TTC), we're proud of more than a decade of championing travel to make a positive difference on the destinations and people we visit, and the wildlife we encounter along the way.

Shannon removing invasive species

Meet Shannon Chief Sustainability Officer

Among many things that make up her day-to-day, Shannon spearheads our mission to MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® across The Travel Corporation. While our travelers are on the road creating memories and ticking off their bucket list, Shannon and her team are behind the scenes striving to ensure every tour has a positive impact and supports vibrant communities in the destinations we visit.

Tell us about Trafalgar's sustainability journey so far?

Vibrant communities aren't just a backdrop to our itineraries, they are the itinerary. And supporting them economically, culturally, and in the face of a changing climate is both our responsibility and our greatest opportunity.

In 2020, we launched our "How We Tread Right" program with 11 ambitious goals tied to the United Nations Sustainable Goals. By 2025, Trafalgar has integrated a MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experience into nearly every journey in our portfolio, eliminated single-use plastics on our coaches, and ensured 100% of animal experiences meet our strict Animal Welfare Policy. We're now turning to the next chapter of Trafalgar's sustainability journey which will see us step up our level of commitment in 2026, alongside our TreadRight Foundation.

What is the role of the TreadRight Foundation, and what projects do they support?

TreadRight was founded in 2008 and has supported around 60+ sustainable tourism projects worldwide aligned to our three pillars of Planet, People and Wildlife.

What ways does Trafalgar demonstrate its commitment to sustainable travel to guests?

When you travel with us, know that our four-point Climate Action Plan is leading us towards net-zero emissions by 2050. As a travel company working towards low carbon goals, you'll be pleased to know that we're committed to shrinking our carbon footprint by using biofuels and helping nature fight the climate crisis. Additionally, every tour includes a MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experience where our guests directly support United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

What's Trafalgar's approach to diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI)?

We don't travel to see the same old things — we explore to meet different people, hear fresh ideas and see new places. For us, DEI is more than sustainability; it's integral to our business operations. From championing diversity in our teams to partnering with underrepresented communities, DEI is woven into the fabric of everything we do.

“ Vibrant communities aren't just a backdrop to our itineraries, they are the itinerary ”
